Telephone installation in the residence of Mr. George Chandy, Communication Officer.

The A.R.P. Controller requests approval to the installation of telephone No. 2692 in the residence of Mr. George Chandy while working as communication officer in A.R.P.

From the un-official enquiry made in the Gen'l Supdt.'s office it is learnt that this telephone was in the residence of Mr. Chandy when he was under the A.R.P. Controller and that it has since been disconnected after his reversion to the Elect. Dept. On 1/5/42. Evidently the A.R.P. Controller wants approval to the installation already done without the previous approval of Govt. As such
